

ADAPTATION FINANCE

What can countries do to scale up?

 Thursday, 3 Dec 2015
4:45 PM – 6:15 PM

 Conference Centre
Side Event Room 3

You are invited

by the Governments of Cambodia, The Gambia, Malawi and Senegal, the Global Water Partnership (GWP), and the joint UNDP-UNEP NAP-GSP - to a discussion on the steps countries are taking at the policy and programme levels to scale-up adaptation finance using all possible means available - particularly regarding the Green Climate Fund.

Facilitator

Alex Simalabwi, GWP

Opening remarks

Tin Ponlok, Cambodia

Speakers

Batu Uprety, Nepal & Chair of the LDC Expert Group
Scaling up funding for local initiatives and the NAPs

Sum Thy, Cambodia
The climate institutional framework - a means to attract adaptation finance

Lamin Tamba, The Gambia
Mobilising adaptation finance to enhance DRR in the Gambia

Madeleine Diouf Sarr, Senegal
Moving from LDCF to GCF – lessons learned

Tawonga Mbale, Government of Malawi, Director of Environmental Affairs
Scaling up: Using lessons learned from ongoing climate adaptation initiatives

Closing remarks

Giza Gaspar-Martins, Angola & Chair of the LDC Group

SUPPORTED BY:

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

